

10 points for Interposition

Stand for freedom as an individual, as a people, and as a state.

- 1) The Indiana State Government stands between the citizens of Indiana and the Federal Government.
- 2) Elected officials in our State Government are legally, ethically, constitutionally obligated to interpose.
- 3) The Federal Government was formed by the states, empowered by the states, and is granted limited authority which is contracted in the U.S. Constitution.
- 4) Indiana should withdraw from the Florida lawsuit and stand on it's own against the Health Care Bill.
- 5) Florida's constitution is subservient to the U.S. Supreme Court.
- 6) Indiana's constitution is on equal standing with the U.S. Constitution.
- 7) To defeat the Health Care Bill in court, it must be proven that the law is unconstitutional.
- 8) The Florida lawsuit does not cite Supreme Court references in support of it's claim.
- 9) The majority of federal judges who will hear the Florida lawsuit were appointed by Bill Clinton and Jimmy Carter.
- 10) All U.S. Citizens have a right to the free exercise of making and enforcing contracts under 42 USC 1981 passed by congress in 1867.

Just say no.
